Morning,

I just chatted with Jesse, because I am not as familiar with this report. The difference between 'Qty received' and 'Lot Qty' is that Qty received is the TOTAL received of that NDC, but there may be multiple lots which is what is reflected in 'lot qty'. I have removed the 'QTY received' column and left the lot column, since the lot's and NDC's are the important part to match up.

Let me know if this helps,

Morning guys,

What is the difference between the Qty Rec'd and Lot Qty?

Hi Charlie-
Here is the report with all purchases from Boulevard.
Let me know if they need something more.

Thanks,

Hey guys,

Is there an ROG report you can pull for all Boulevard products that I can send them?

Hi Sameer,

I would like to introduce you to Peter who owns Boulevard Wholesale. He needs some help completing a backlog of T3's ASAP. Peter is relatively new at this and needs some help from you and your team to guide him through the process. I have CC'd him on this email so that you all can connect. I hope this helps and we can get these resolved ASAP. Thanks!

Best regards,
CB
